NATURE'S FLOW, CAPTURED IN EVERY TILE

Just like the ocean carves its paths through time, these tiles carry the organic veins of deep blue waters and soft earthly sands.

The Ocean Veins collection brings the mystery and calmness of the sea into modern living spaces. Each tile is carved with natural vein patterns that resemble ocean currents, shore lines, and the fluid motion of waves. With 600x1200mm grandeur and a tactile carving finish, it creates a surface that feels alive, luxurious, and deeply connected to nature's own art.

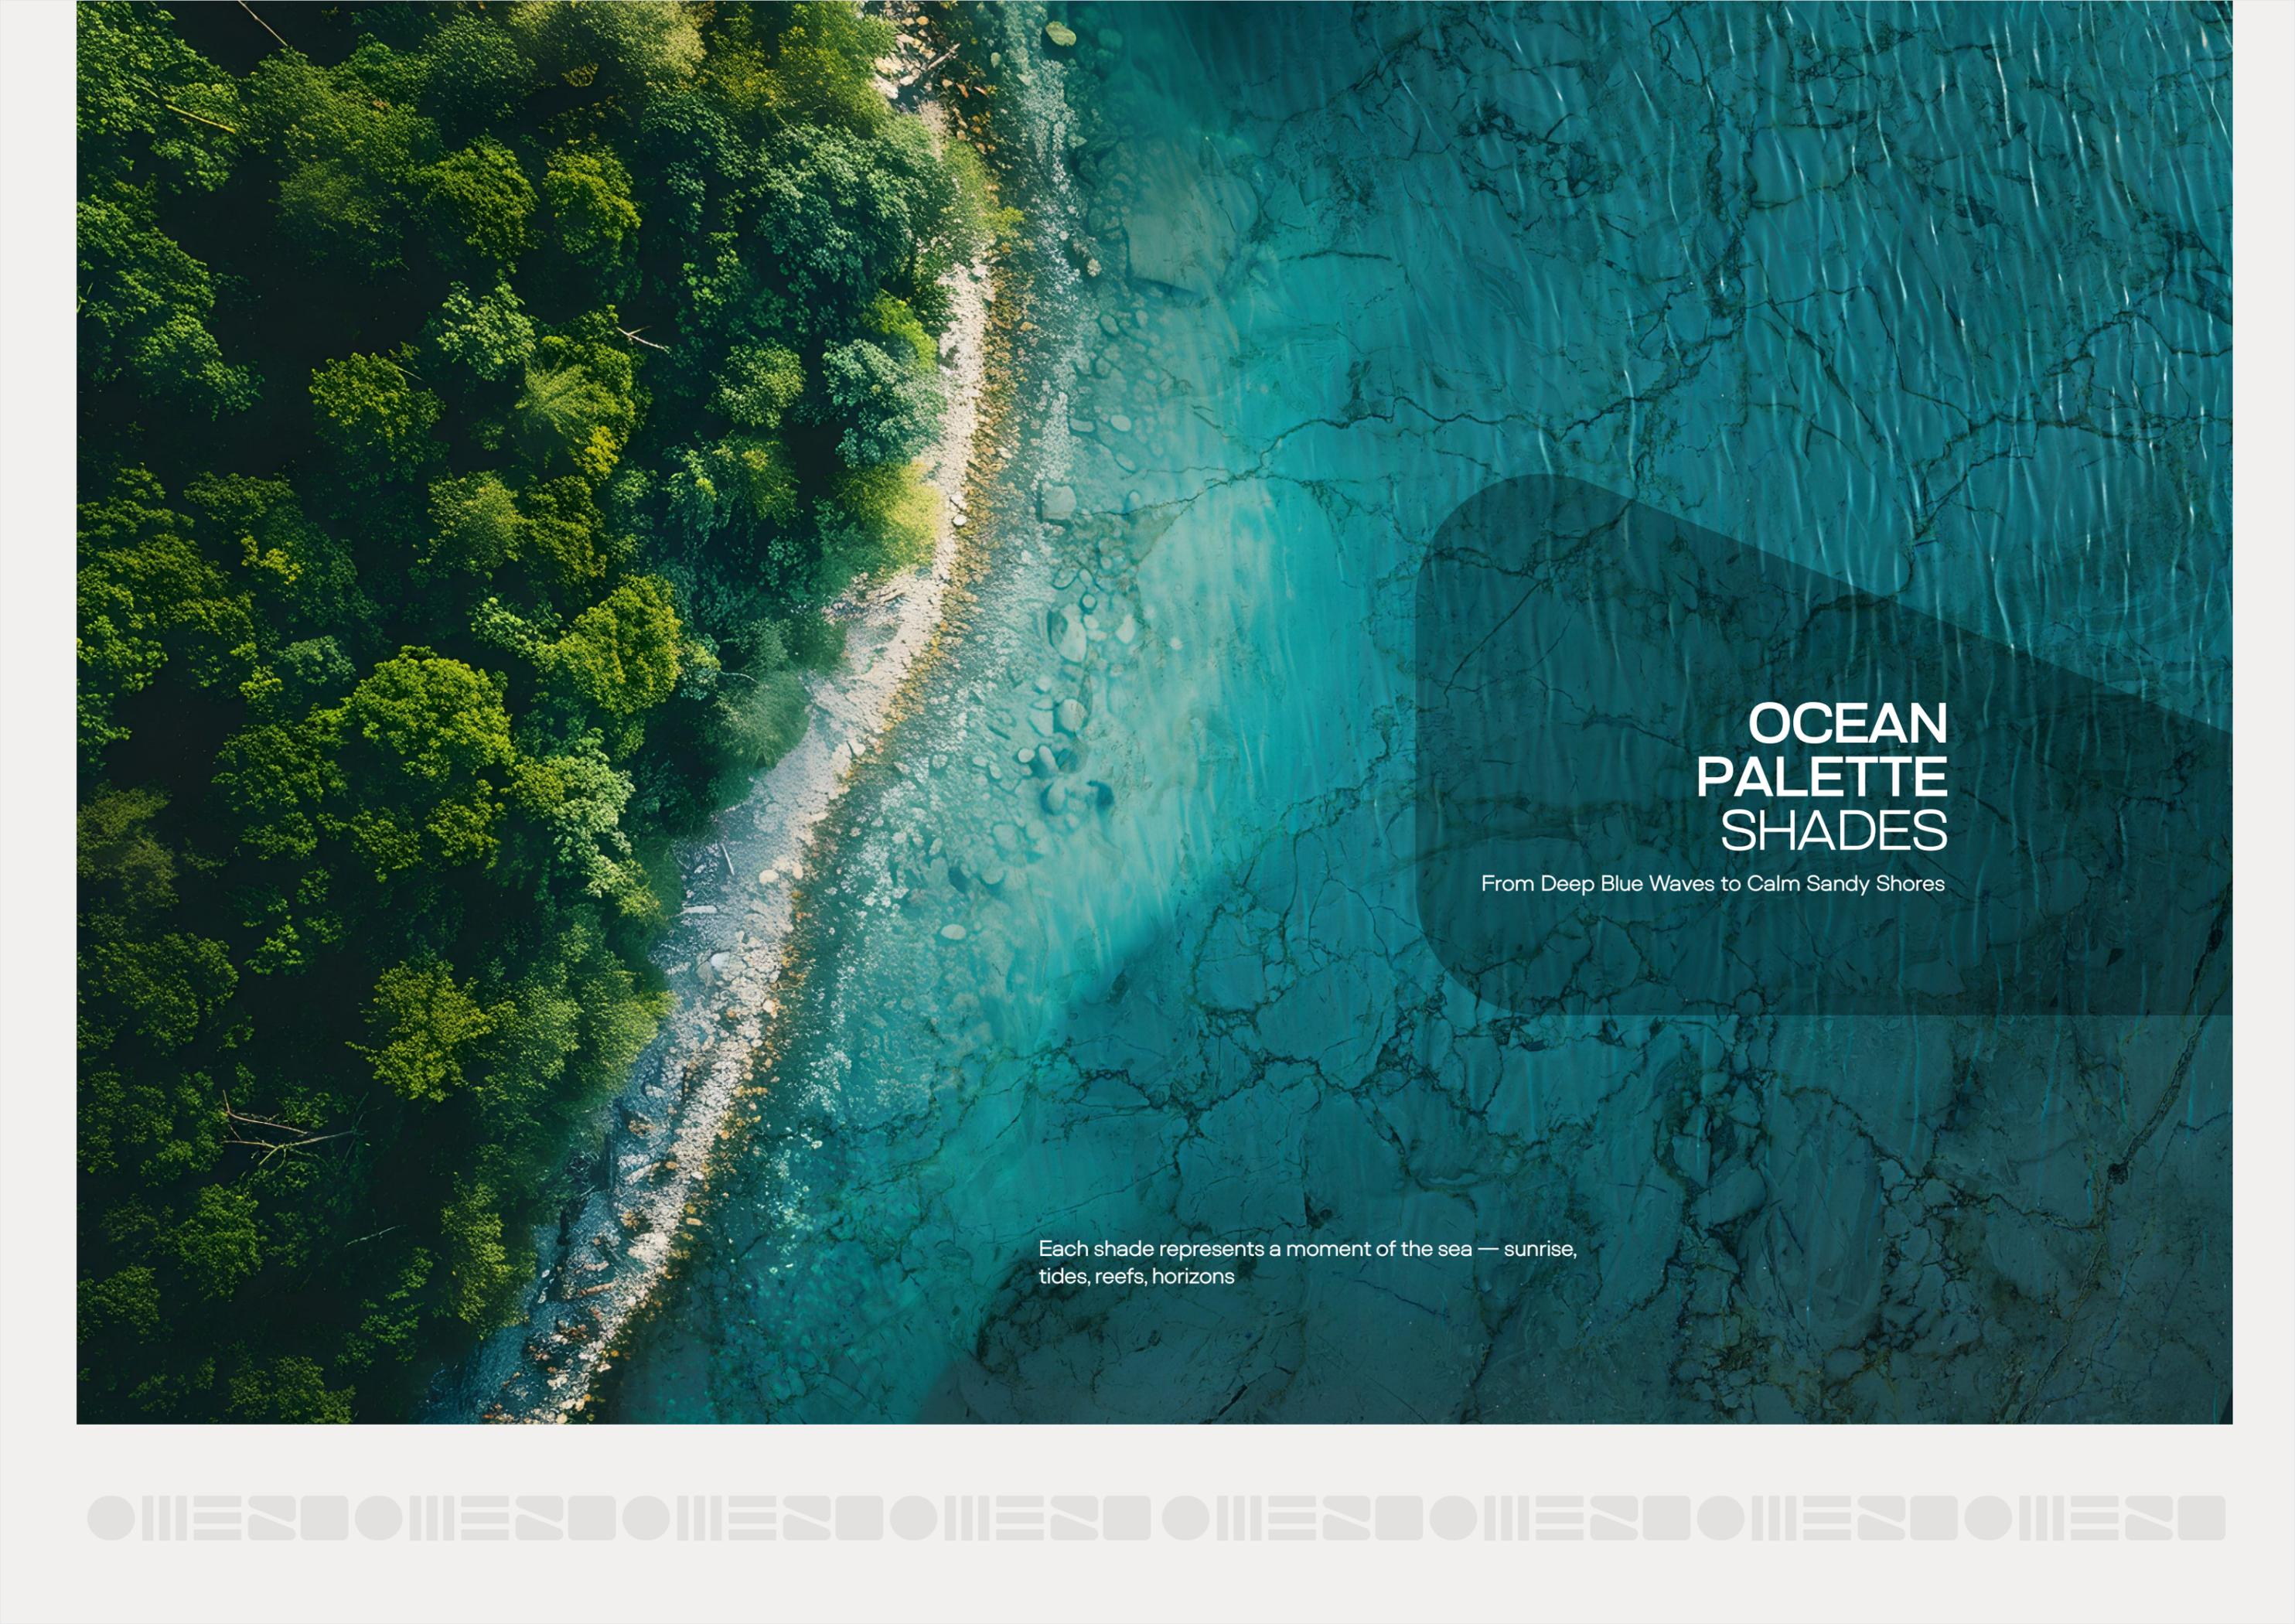

CARVED BY WATERS PERFECTED BY CRAFT

Our carving finish tiles reinterpret the natural erosion of stone and flow of water blending texture, depth, and visual harmony. The play of light on carved surfaces adds dimension, just like sunlight dancing on the ocean surface.

OCEAN PALETTE SHADES

From Deep Blue Waves to Calm Sandy Shores

Each shade represents a moment of the sea — sunrise,
tides, reefs, horizons

WHEN TILES BECOME OCEAN STORIES

Every tile in this collection is more than a surface — it's a fragment of nature's poetry. From the movements of deep tides to the calm of a sunrise shore, Ocean Veins brings the untouched grace of water into architectural form. A design legacy created not just to be seen, but to be felt.

QUANTIC GRIS

preserved lemon

recipe 7

The preserved lemons that we used for the Akasha were made by a Japanese woman who lives in a small town in the mountains of Japan. She has been making them for many years and has learned the art of cooking like almost everyone else - she knows very well how to use the lemons in the most delicious way.

Ingredients:
1kg lemons
1kg salt
1kg sugar
1kg vinegar
1kg oil

Instructions:
1. Wash the lemons thoroughly and dry them.
2. Cut the lemons in half and remove the seeds.
3. Mix the salt, sugar, and vinegar in a bowl.
4. Rub the mixture on the lemons.
5. Place the lemons in a jar and cover with oil.
6. Let them sit for 3 weeks.
